HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT

To the Citizens of Newport:

This office is very happy to report that during the past year Newport has been particularly free from contagious diseases.

This good record I feel quite sure is due in no small measure to the splendid cooperation of our citizens and our physicians in promptly reporting and then strictly adhering to the instructions given them.

A continuance of such helpful cooperation is bound to show its results in the future as it has apparently during the past year.

There have been reported during the year only six cases of scarlet fever, four cases of measles, two cases of whooping cough and two cases of chicken pox.

There have been many complaints of various sorts brought to this office dealing with the improper handling by certain individuals of their rubbish and in some cases of garbage.

Now that the town is making a practice of having garbage collected within the village limits there is little or no excuse for any person neglecting to cooperate in this regard.

Complaints are welcome at this office and will be promptly investigated. No complainant's name is ever divulged.

During the year there was held in Newport under the direction of the New Hampshire State Board of Health a Diphtheria Immunization Clinic at which fifty-eight children received treatment.

It is with regret that I am obliged to report that several cases of "Social Diseases" have been brought to the attention of this office. Some of these cases have had to do with the very young people of the town.

It behooves the parents of their children to be ever on their guard against this evil and use every method in their power to warn those within their care of the existing dangers.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD J. MALEY, Health Officer.

CLINIC AND NURSING SERVICE, NEWPORT, 1938

The New Hampshire Tuberculosis Association continued its case finding, follow-up, and clinic service for the citizens of Newport during the year 1938.

At the two clinics held in Newport, 64 patients were examined. Among 44 new persons attending the clinics, 5 positive and 8 suspicious cases of tuberculosis were found.

Twenty-eight positive cases of tuberculosis were under the supervision of the tuberculosis field nurse at the close of the year, also many suspicious cases and contacts of persons having active disease.

Four patients received treatment at State Sanatoria through diagnosis at the clinic, and 6 persons were given the benefit of X-ray of the chest through cooperation of the local hospital.

The Christmas Seal sale provides the funds to carry on all our services. Besides furnishing funds Christmas Seals furnish the health education and spread the message of prevention and cure of tuberculosis. This Association extends to the people of Newport who have assisted financially and in so many other ways its sincere appreciation and gratitude for their steadfast and generous support.

REPORT OF PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE COMMISSION

To the Newport Selectmen:

For many years the community health work was carried on by a nurse under the direction of an association formed for that purpose. The executive work of the association was carried on by the Board of Directors. About a year ago the existing Board of Directors felt it really had no legal status since the nursing association had ceased to exist. The expense of the health work is practically all paid by the town and the school district. It was felt, therefore, that the directors of this work should be appointed by the Selectmen and the School Board and be responsible to them. Accordingly the Board of Directors of the old association consulted with the Selectmen and School Board with the result that a commission was organized consisting of the Health Officer, Superintendent of Schools, and a third member appointed by the Selectmen. This commission began service Dec. 1, 1937.

As one of the departments in the town government the commission at this time presents an annual report, including the nurse's report, for the fiscal year February 1, 1938, to February 1, 1939.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD J. MALEY, Chairman,
MRS. HAROLD FAIRBANKS, Sec.,
ALFRED W. SMITH, Treas.,

REPORT OF AIRPORT COMMISSIONERS

To the Citizens of Newport:

The undersigned, upon receiving their appointment, immediately undertook and accomplished the needed repairs to the runways and the aqueduct supplying water to the field house. The work performed on the runways placed them in a better condition than they had been since they were originally laid out.

Our only big event of the season was our participation in the national program of "Airmail Week," (May 15-21, 1938).

Our program embraced a pageant showing the methods by which mail had been delivered to people from the days of the pony express fighting with Indians and desperadoes, down to the hour of our program when the airplane arrived with pouches of mail for local distribution and re-loaded with mail pouches from the Newport post office. A large crowd of people assembled at the aviation field for the climax of this great adventure and the people were made a bit conscious of the part performed by the airplane in successfully transporting mail and passengers not only from coast to coast, but around the world.

Eighteen hundred and thirty-six letters were mailed via air mail during the week and over 1,200 of this number were sent out on the first air mail plane to leave Newport, May 19, 1938. Air mail was also sent out on the same plane from all surrounding towns and from New London, from whence mail was received at our office by pony express, Miss Nancy Edward, Colby Junior College, pony express rider. Miss "Trudy" Rowe of Newport acted as local pony express rider, carrying the local mail to the airport. Numerous pictures were taken of the event, which, with this report, our local historian will doubtless see occupy a conspicuous place in the history of the Town of Newport for the year 1938.

During the season a substantial number of airplanes landed and took off from our field. One party brought her daughter from Pennsylvania to a local summer camp and returned to her home on the same day, greatly pleased with the attention she received at Newport. Another party arrived by airplane from Connecticut to complete a real estate deal and the pilot of his plane spoke very highly of the facilities offered by our field.

The field house was not rented the entire season because of general business conditions.

Looking forward into 1939, your Commissioners do not know what to anticipate, since the death of Mr. Corbin, who owned the field, has brought the land onto the market. Unless it is purchased by or on behalf of the town we shall probably lose our airport. Here is afforded a splendid opportunity for citizens to make their contributions, as if our field is now lost, it may determine the entire future of the town and decide whether or not we are to be an independent community or be forced to take a second rate position as an adjunct to some other community which provides opportunity for air transportation.

REPORT OF CHIEF ENGINEER OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

To the Selectmen of the Town of Newport:

I herewith submit my annual report of the condition and service of the Fire Department for the past year.

I am pleased to report that the Department is in first class condition. The personnel of the Company has been maintained as heretofore, alive and active, and the organization under the efficient Board of Officers which is in command is in condition to meet its hazardous duties with dispatch and skill.

The property damage for the past year is about the average of former years and the number of calls about the same as for the last two years.

It is with most profound regret that it becomes my duty to report the loss of one of our young members, Arthur C. Ford, by death in the performance of his duties, being killed by the Fire Truck upon which he was riding being sideswiped by a load of lumber. Mr. Ford was a fine young man, retiring in disposition, reliable and steady, one of those people who leave a lasting impression upon you. He is missed by the members of the Department and they all join with me in extending heartfelt sympathy to the widow and the small child to whom the father and mother were looking forward for comfort and pleasure.

The Department has also been called upon to cope with a fire where, very unfortunately, two lives were lost by their being unable to escape from the building involved. Members of the Department made every possible effort to remove them but succeeded in getting only one out and he survived for only a few hours.

Let me call your attention, at this time, to the interference with the operation of the Department by the automobile and truck situation. At one fire the past year only one piece of apparatus reached the buildings which were on fire. The next truck had to stop a half a mile back because the road was blocked by automobiles running ahead of the apparatus and I think it might be well for those operating machines to acquaint themselves with the ordinance of the Town covering their duties as to operating their machines. We do not want to hazard lives or the loss of property by their ignoring the rules of traffic. The ordinance requires vehicles to stop and pull to the side of the road as soon as an alarm is sounded and to keep in that position until all apparatus has passed and that they must not trail the apparatus at any time nearer than two hundred feet.

I also wish to call to the attention of the citizens the seriousness of the situation as to the danger of forest fires the coming spring. Not in the history of the State or Town has there been such a hazard as confronts us, and it will be necessary to take some action at our coming Town Meeting to provide equipment in addition to what we have to cope with the situation and cooperate with the State in handling the fires that are bound to occur.

There has been installed a new boiler in the engine house and the new truck for the hook and ladder which were provided for at our last Town Meeting. There were other needed repairs which were necessary to be done and an account of these repairs is the reason for the small outlay above the appropriation.

GEORGE E. LEWIS,

Chief of Fire Department.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Newport School Board:

I herewith submit my fifth annual report as superintendent of schools.

The Old Woman in the Shoe, according to contemporary news flashes, had so many children she didn't know what to do. We have a multitude of children in our schools but, unlike the old woman, we know what to do. We take them all in, shut the doors, and do the best we can. And we do pretty well, too, thanks to a corps of strong teachers. There are many things we could do better, however, if classes were not so heavily overloaded. Several classes have 45-50 pupils each.

The standard tests given in the elementary grades last spring in reading, arithmetic, and language showed that our classes, without exception, equaled, and in most cases exceeded, the median scores. Similar tests this fall, to ascertain our present standing, showed that we started the year well up to grade.

PROFESSIONAL STUDY

The emphasis this year in the elementary teachers' professional study has been put on instruction in reading. The teachers' meetings instead of being general for the entire staff have consisted of groups of teachers interested in particular phases of reading instruction.

Pupils in the first grade who are shown by two standard, non-verbal tests, as well as by the teacher's judgment after a fair period of trial, to be too immature for the regular first grade work, are placed in a pre-primary group and given definite preparation for reading instruction. This procedure has proved to be very sound and helpful, being successful in practically every case. In this way an immature child is saved the discouragement of failure, because he does successfully the easy preparatory tasks and eventually starts reading with real joy. This takes more time, of course, and may require two years, but progress is continuous even though slow. This reading-readiness program, so-called, is one of the noteworthy developments in modern education.

We are doing more in grouping pupils according to ability in reading and adapting reading materials to individual ability. Improved textbooks make this possible.

Much of the success in our reading program is due to the effective instruction given in grades 4 and 5 in the Richards Annex by Miss Frances Munn. She is a special teacher of reading, handling no other subject. A careful diagnosis is made of each pupil's ability in reading and remedial instruction is given. Each class in reading meets twice daily. The remarkable success of this type of work has proved its worth each year.

Average Results in Iowa Silent Reading Tests
(expressed in reading grade)

	Richards Annex, Grades 4 and 5
	Grade 4		Grade 5		Grade 6
	Oct.	May	Oct.	May	Oct.
1934-35		5.0		6.4
1935-36	3.9	5.1	5.2	6.5	6.6
1936-37	4.1	4.9	5.1	6.2	6.4
1937-38	3.9	5.3	4.9	6.6	6.5
1938-39	4.2		5.3		6.6

In interpreting the above table, it is understood that the fourth grade should average in October at least 4.1 (fourth year, 1st. month); the fifth grade 5.1; the sixth grade 6.1. In May the average grades scores should be at least 4.8 and 5.8. The table shows that in May the two grades always exceeded the standard and in fact made more than a normal year's progress. Furthermore each class maintained its standing over the summer vacation. The October scores of grade 6 are given to show this fact for the pupils who were in grade 5 the previous year.

The special reading teacher in the Primary School, Miss Iris Pohl, resigned to go elsewhere and, for reasons of economy, her position was not filled.

EVENING SCHOOL

During 1937-38 no evening school was conducted because there seemed to be no demand for one. Last fall, however, a petition signed by about twenty-five individuals was presented for reestablishing an evening school for instruction in English for those of foreign extraction. Accordingly an evening school was organized and Mrs. Grace Carey was engaged to teach such classes. There are 37 men and women enrolled (Jan. 1, 1939). The beginning class meets Tuesday evenings 7-9, and the advanced class Thursday evenings, 7-9, at the high school.

MUSIC AND ART

There are two needs of our children which merit more attention, namely, art and music instruction. We have a supervisor of vocal music and this type of instruction is very adequately and successfully carried on. Instrumental music instruction, as a school project, is not so well organized. We have, to be sure, a good band and a good orchestra, under the leadership of one of our regular teachers. But to maintain these musical organizations there should be a continuing group of beginners in all the required instruments. We have to depend for this instruction entirely on private teachers. We are glad to have such teachers give lessons to pupils in the school buildings during spare periods, and usually we have been able to provide such lessons. The availability of such private teachers, however, is not certain. In fact, pupils in the past who really wanted to take lessons have at times been unable to do so for lack of a teacher.

Now I realize that many people say that music is a frill. But is it? How can a person better spend his leisure than producing music for his own enjoyment or the pleasure of others? Such a hobby may prevent a person wasting time in unhealthy, or worse, pursuits. It is a fact that few musicians land in jail. Our nation is becoming increasingly music conscious. Is a pupil as much entitled to instrumental instruction as vocal? This is a question worth considering. The radio brings all kinds of music daily into our homes. To evaluate such music and appreciate really good selections require training. Such training should include production of music (either by voice or some instrument) as well as listening. A teacher is needed, as well as room, for instructional purposes.

In this connection, I wish to mention the excellent performance of the glee clubs, orchestra, and band. Miss Young has charge of the vocal music and Mr. Rowell conducts the orchestra and band. The two instrumental groups comprise both senior and junior high school pupils. The High School Operetta, "Rose of the Danube," and the Junior High School rendition of "Hansel and Gretel" were especially well done. The school orchestra has added much to the enjoyment of several school programs. The school band has played mostly at out-door gatherings and has been an inspiration at the athletic games.

Our work in art is limited to what the regular classroom teachers can do. Not all are talented along this line. There is no art supervisor to coordinate and direct the work. And yet 26 pupils in the Richards School want art instruction so much that they are willing to remain after school to be guided by one of the teachers, who has some artistic ability and is generous enough to give her time and effort. What is said about individual participation in music applies also to art.

The proper use of leisure time is coming to be of great importance since we have so much of it due to shorter working hours or even to unemployment. Labor-saving devices and faster transportation also add to our free time. These added hours of leisure will cause people with no hobbies to waste time in unhappy idleness or even to get into mischief. On the other hand, those who have acquired the habit of reading, drawing, playing musical instruments, or engaging in healthy recreation will benefit both themselves and the community.

REPAIRS

Towle High School

The top of the wall along the front of the building had to be re-laid since the bricks had become loose. The chimney was re-topped also.

New metal treads were installed on the boys' stairs from the basement to the first floor. The linoleum type of covering does not stand up under the traffic of modern heavy boots.

Richards School

Copper tubing was installed, replacing the old iron water pipes, which had become so clogged with rust that pressure was reduced almost to the vanishing point.

New wooden treads were laid on the stairs in the boys' basement.

Rural Schools

The interior of the North Newport schoolroom was repainted. The ceiling at Kelleyville was painted.

IN MEMORIAM

Walter E. Hunting, who had served faithfully and efficiently as janitor of the Primary School for fifteen years, passed away Nov. 29, 1938. Always cheerful and cooperative, he rendered whole-hearted service in the performance of his duties. He was especially popular with the little children for he took care of them with a truly fatherly love and devotion.

FINANCES

The School Board, realizing the difficulties of our times, has made a sincere effort to keep expenditures down to the lowest possible point, with the result that not for five years has the requested appropriation been so small. There will not be a general increase in salaries of teachers, but there are a few inequalities which should, in justice to all concerned, be adjusted.

It is planned, therefore, to allow a few increases to bring about this needed readjustment. These increases are more than offset by decreases in other items.

As far as per pupil cost is concerned, our school budget really merits no reduction because almost no school district in New Hampshire operates its schools as inexpensively as we do. The per pupil cost of the Towle High School ($71.15) is absolutely the lowest in the state. (State Average, $105.33.) This is because (1) we cannot in our cramped quarters offer our children the educational facilities provided by other towns; (2) we have a smaller number of teachers than our enrollment really requires; (3) the salaries of our high school teachers are below the state average.

The per pupil cost of our elementary schools last year was $59.33. There are 241 school districts in the state. Only 15 of these had a lower per pupil cost of elementary schools than Newport—and we are very little higher than these 15 districts. The reasons for our low position are again concerned with inadequate accommodations and insufficient number of teachers.

Our expenditures compared with the town's valuation show that we occupy a position in the state a little below the median. We spend $11.72 per $1000. of equalized valuation. The median is $11.82.

I want to add a word of appreciation for the kindly attitude and helpful cooperation of school board, teachers, and all others connected with our schools, without which it would be impossible for the schools to operate so effectively.

Sincerely yours,

ALFRED W. SMITH,
Superintendent of Schools.

D. Extra-curricular Activities

1. Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives from each subordinate class and club, made a detailed analysis of the problems of financing various activities and adopted a centrally-controlled Activity Fee Plan as a means of providing, at reduced cost to the student, broader opportunities of participation in athletics and social affairs conducted by the school. This plan was made effective on September 7, 1938, and early indications are that it is destined to enjoy considerable success. The interest and participation of the student body has been materially increased in extra-curricula activities and all of the organizations that benefit financially under this plan are in comparatively sounder financial condition than was the case prior to its adoption.

2. Junior Prize Speaking

The thirty-fourth annual Fairbanks Junior Prize Speaking Contest was held on May 20, 1938. Nine members of the Junior Class presented a very well balanced program. Russell Bartholomew won first prize with the selection, "Markheim," from Robert Louis Stevenson. Betty Wiggins won second prize for her selection, "A Court Scene from the Merchant of Venice," by William Shakespeare. Juanita Saunders received honorable mention for her selection, "His Doctor," by C. G. Milham. The judges were Mr. Harry Preston, Miss Anna D. Cattabriga, and Mr. Maynard C. Waltz, all of Keene Normal School.

Miss Winifred Kennedy won first place in the original oration section of the Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest held at the University of New Hampshire, May 6, 1938.

3. The Athletic Program

The Athletic Association has provided opportunities for approximately one-half of the total student body to participate in the sports program. An examination of the inventory shows athletic equipment to the value of $1,610.10 as of Dec. 31, 1938, compared to an inventory of $1,458.58 a year ago. The balance on hand of January 1, 1938, was $211.80, receipts for 1938, $2,323.13, total $2,534.93. Expenditures for 1938 were $2,284.30, balance on hand Dec. 31, 1938, $250.63. Expenses for transportation totaled $215.15. The Athletic Association appreciates the transportation fund made available by the school district, but it should be pointed out that this money does not provide proper bus transportation for all sports.

4. The School Library

Book purchases during the past year together with many generous gifts from townspeople have made it possible to offer the students a new set of Encyclopedias, a set, "Messages and Papers of the Presidents," an extensive increase in the number of volumes of fiction, as well as many valuable additions to other departments.

E. General

An analysis of present trends would seem to show that the high school enrollment is likely to level off in the vicinity of three hundred pupils for the next few years. The extreme pressure of crowded conditions will be over for the time being, but I believe it is my duty to point out the fact that our high school building is in many ways inadequate as an educational plant. While it is perhaps true that the achievements of our student body would seem to indicate reasonable adequacy, there are, nevertheless, many instances wherein the young people of Newport do not have opportunities for self-development that should be theirs.

We have been fortunate during recent years in retaining a majority of our teachers. Yet the tendency of teachers' salaries to level off too soon endangers this stability. Outwardly it may seem a saving to allow experienced teachers to move on, since they can be replaced by low-salaried beginners. Actually the costs of such changes are very great. If the difference in instructional aptitude could be measured in dollars and cents, it would be a price far greater than we would care to pay. The fact that instructional ineptness is imposed upon the pupils makes it less obvious, but none the less undesirable. Our costs of instruction are among the lowest in the state and we can far better afford to pay an experienced teaching staff good salaries than to serve as a training ground for good teachers who take their instructional ability elsewhere.

If it became a matter of choice between improved educational facilities and properly compensated, capable teachers, I would unhesitatingly endorse the latter. The fact remains, however, that Newport is obtaining its educational offerings more cheaply than the majority of towns and cities in the state. The difference in the cost of educational offerings represents a denial of broader opportunities for our school students as they grow toward their ultimate role as citizens in the community.

The spirit of cooperation that our students, faculty, and community have exemplified during the past year has made it possible to report the many splendid achievements contained herein.

Yours very truly,

E. M. PERKINS, Headmaster.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

Mr. Alfred W. Smith,
Superintendent of Schools,
Newport, N. H.

Dear Sir:

I herewith submit my annual report as School Nurse for the Newport School District. It is with a great deal of satisfaction that I am able to report that the annual examination of the school children for the school year, 1938-39, was completed very early in the year. This has made it possible for me to know better the needs of the pupils and to carry on the necessary follow-up work in ample time to make the necessary corrections before the school year is over when many contacts are lost. All this was made possible by the employment of a qualified nurse for one month to care for the community health work while I was carrying on the examinations. The dental clinic supported by the Red Cross has been carried on as usual. Its effectiveness is beginning to make itself manifest in the greatly lessened number of children out of school with dental trouble. A tonsil clinic, in part supported by the same organization, has been held. We have had no epidemics of any kind, largely due to the early report of absence by teachers and the follow-up work that has been done immediately thereafter. Free milk has been distributed to 78 children due to the generosity of our citizens. In addition to this 63 other children have milk.

In closing, may I express to you and the teachers of the district my appreciation of your interest and help.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA DONOVAN, R. N.

NO-SCHOOL SIGNAL

When the weather is so bad that it is inadvisable for children to attend school, the no-school signal will be sounded by the fire whistle at 7:30 in the morning. The signal is 2-2-2. When it is necessary to close school in the morning it will mean that school sessions will be omitted all day. It would be practically impossible to get bus and tuition pupils to attend an afternoon session only.

If when schools are in session in the morning it seems advisable to omit the afternoon session, the no-school signal will be given at 11:30. Children in school will, of course, be notified in such a case.

In addition to the fire signal the electric lights, through the courtesy of the New Hampshire Public Service Company, will be turned on for a few minutes at the time the no-school signal is sounded.

On no school days a pre-arranged system of telephoning gives notice to those who transport school children, to teachers, and as far as possible, to out-of-town tuition pupils. Persons who are doubtful about the no-school signal should call the superintendent or some other member of the school department rather than the fire station. Unnecessary calling of the fire station might interfere with emergency calls which should reach the fire department quickly.
